EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
REPORT

In 2023, South Dakota's public universities and special schools had a remarkable year. Our institutions accepted more students, increased student retention, and saw a higher number of graduates choosing to stay and work in our state. We are proud of the work our schools do and grateful for the statewide support they receive.

AFFORDABILITY

Again this year, our South Dakota public university students saw no increases in tuition and fees. This is due to a great partnership between lawmakers and our institutions. I want to thank our lawmakers for their continued support of our students and commend our universities for absorbing over $7 million on our campuses to make this collaboration a real freeze. Despite the drastic inflation, our universities have only increased prices by a total of 1.1% over the past four years, which has significantly benefited our students and enhanced our competitiveness within the region.

ENROLLMENT

This year, we are proud to welcome the largest incoming class of first-time freshmen in the past decade. We are thrilled to see so many students choosing our universities for their higher education journey, which is excellent news for our schools and our state. The fall 2023 first-time freshmen totaled 5,341 students, which is a 2.6 percent increase from a strong 2022 class, which had already increased over 6% from the 2021 class. Across our six universities, the overall student body now equals 34,370, which is a 2.0 percent increase from the previous fall. Such data shows that our efforts are working, and our state's public higher education system is thriving.

EFFICIENCY

Our system is constantly striving for efficiency and improving its organizational effectiveness. For instance, this year, we centralized our human resources departments and implemented a uniform classification and compensation system. Additionally, our system is in the middle of developing a strategic framework to identify and inform decision making around future opportunities and vulnerabilities at our six universities in South Dakota. Our efforts to improve efficiency and effectiveness are in continuation of actions like our Strategic Plan and the 2019 Legislative Senate Bill 55 Taskforce.

NEW BOARD MEMBERS AND UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

In 2023, our Board of Regents welcomed five new members - Judy Dittman, Randy Frederick, James Lochner, Doug Morrison, and Randy Rasmussen. We are grateful for their dedication and hard work toward improving our higher education system. You can find their detailed biographies on the next page. We said farewell to Laurie Nichols, president of Black Hills State University, and welcomed Steve Elliott as the new BHSU president. Steve joins us from Wayne State College in Nebraska, and we are excited to have him and his family in South Dakota.

This fall, the state's public university student count is up two percent, marking the second consecutive year of enrollment growth for the system, In addition to headcount, two critical measures are student full-time equivalence (FTE), the number of calculated full-time students, and the student-generated credit hours (SGH). These two measures are the best indicators of the health of the system.

Several initiatives are currently underway to achieve growth in enrollments across the state of South Dakota.

1. Increase the value of post-secondary education
2. Facilitate pathways for career opportunities

POSTSECONDARY READINESS - HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

On average, South Dakota high schools graduate just under 9,000 students a year. While over 60% of graduates will continue to a postsecondary institution, approximately half of students continuing their education will enroll in a BOR institution, as shown in the first chart. The following two charts show that many high school students are capable of university-level academic work. Completing university-level courses while still in high school is one of the multiple ways that allow students to earn their degrees sooner and thus reduce the cost of higher education. The top courses enrolled by High School Dual Credit students, as seen in the bottom chart, are the top classes that help students get a head start on their college career.

STUDENT LOANS
Average Student Loan Balance by State (2022Q4)

The South Dakota Board of Regents prioritizes student affordability and stresses the importance of accessible higher education. According to the Federal Reserve Bank of New York Consumer Credit Panel, South Dakota students hold the second lowest debt balance in the nation. The current average student debt balance in South Dakota is $29,950, while the national average is $ 31,630.

FY 2020 default rates were significantly impacted by the pause on federal student loan payments which began March 13, 2020. During the pause, borrowers with ED-held student loans were not required to make any payments, and no borrowers with ED-held loans entered default. Fewer than 200 borrowers with non-ED-held FFEL loans entered default because those loans were not eligible for the payment pause.

OUR DAKOTA DREAMS - COLLEGE PREPARATION CAMPAIGN

Our Dakota Dreams is a statewide college preparation effort in South Dakota. This effort is led by a coalition of representatives from BOR, the South Dakota Department of Education, the Board of Technical Education, the South Dakota Department of Labor & Regulation, and Mapping Your Future.

OUR DAKOTA DREAMS PROMOTES:

- THE VALUE OF ATTENDING COLLEGE IN SOUTH DAKOTA

- THE FREE APPLICATION PERIOD

- IMPORTANCE OF COMPLETING THE FREE APPLICATION FOR FEDERAL STUDENT AID (FAFSA)

- FINANCIAL AID AND SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION

- GRANT-FUNDED EFFORTS AND PROGRAMMING

GRANT-FUNDED PROGRAMMING INCLUDES:

DAKOTA DREAMS ONLINE TUTORING PROGRAM

Providing all K-12 students in South Dakota free online tutoring sessions taught by university students who have been accepted into the Schools of Education at BHSU and NSU.

Outcomes: The program expanded from homework help only to also providing tutor-led lessons (called Tutor Tracks) in Reading, Grammar, and Math in the grant's second year of programming. This additional feature has significantly increased program usage.

CAREER EXPLORATION SUMMER CAMPS

Free, week-long camps for rising 7th and 8th grade students in South Dakota hosted on public university and technical college campuses. These camps are designed to help students explore a variety of career pathways through hands-on activities and area industry tours.

Outcomes: The camps served 600 students in Summer 2023. In Summer 2024, the camps plan to serve 900 students by hosting nine camps.

MATH PATHWAYS – MATH FOR COLLEGE READINESS

An opportunity for high school juniors and seniors to prepare for college-level math coursework while earning high school credit. This course, taught by the Northern State E-Learning Center, increases math confidence in students and alleviates the need for remedial and supplemental math support in college. Successful completion of this course places a student directly into college-level math without the need for additional testing, saving the student time and money.

Outcomes: Forty-two students participated in this course during Spring 2023, and 35 of those earned automatic placement into college-level math.

TEACHER LEADERSHIP ACADEMY

An experience-based learning opportunity for South Dakota teachers with five+ years of experience to further develop their educational leadership skills. Teachers who successfully complete the course earn three graduate credits that can be applied to an advanced degree in education at BHSU, DSU, NSU, SDSU, and USD.

Outcomes: This academy served 60 teachers in its first year, with 50 percent of participants continuing to pursue their advanced degrees in education. In the second year, the academy accepted 90 teachers.

ELEMENTARY TEACHER STEM INITIATIVE

The Elementary Teacher STEM Initiative provides 2nd-5th grade teachers with the ability to earn up to 3-credit hours at the graduate level in a course designed to grow their Science, Math, Technology, and Engineering activities in the classroom. The course is an intensive week-long residential session with follow-up support.

Outcomes: Forty-eight teachers participated in the Summer 2023 program. A follow-up session will occur in Summer 2024, with additional enrollment opportunities for up to 200 teacher participants.

TEACHER APPRENTICESHIP PATHWAY

Offering paraprofessionals in schools (also known as an aide, educational assistant, or teacher's aide) an opportunity to earn a teaching certificate. Through completion of this program, participants will earn a bachelor's degree in elementary education, special education, or secondary education while gaining hands-on experience in the classroom and receiving financial support and support from experienced mentors.

Outcomes: Eighty-nine students were admitted into this program, and coursework began in Fall 2023.

ACADEMIC COMPLETION AND RETENTION

Student counts include new students who began a bachelor's degree program in the Fall 2017 term on a full-time basis. These students had not attended any other postsecondary institution since graduating from high school or earning a GED. Transfer, continuing, high school, and special students (not degree seeking) were excluded. Those shown as enrolled in graduate or professional programs in Fall 2023 may have completed a bachelor's degree at another university.

LICENSURE AND CERTIFICATIONS

The table below lists programs that require graduates to pass an exam before working in the field. The number tested in a year is not usually the same as the number of graduates, as some students choose not test immediately after graduation. Years (calendar, state fiscal, federal fiscal) and months of examination vary due to differences across testing agencies. National pass rates are not available for all fields. The pass rates for the PharmD, Respiratory Care, and Medical Lab Science are first-time pass rates. For these three programs, every student passed upon retaking the exam. Data reported to the Board of Regents by the universities unless otherwise noted.

*The Didactic Program in Dietetics is accredited and monitored through a three-year revolving pass rate for program quality. Students must complete the dietetic internship and pass the RDN exam for eligibility to practice.

The graduate Nutrition and Dietetics Internship pass rate is measured as a one-year pass rate (graduates who pass the registration exam within one year of first attempt) on the CDR credentialing exam for Registered Dietitian Nutritionists, with monitoring as a revolving three-year pass rate for program quality.

NABP changed the reporting process for the PharmD NAPLEX exam. Therefore, the PharmD NAPLEX pass rates will be reported on a calendar basis moving forward. The report will be available in early spring.

Graduation records are checked for matches in the SDDLR Reemployment Assistance (RA) program for a one-quarter (three-month) window one year following a student's graduation date. Any employment/enrollment data returned for this time period — including part-time employment/enrollment — are included in the analysis. Although about 95 percent of South Dakota workers are covered by Reemployment Assistance's unemployment insurance, people who are employed by federal agencies, the self-employed and those employed in other states are excluded.

TEACHER EDUCATION

Report Date: Academic Year 2021-2022

Teacher certification applicants in South Dakota must earn passing scores on exams for their certification area(s). Candidates applying for initial certification are required to meet qualifying scores on the appropriate Praxis II Subject Assessment(s) and Praxis II Principles of Learning and Teaching (PLT) test(s) that most closely correspond to their anticipated area(s) of instruction. The system-wide cumulative pass rate was 91.2%.

NOTE: SD employment percentages cited here refer only to the proportion of teacher education graduates who are hired by in-state school districts. These 'employment' rates do not include graduates who may have been hired by an out-of-state school district, hired by an educational organization other than a school district, hired outside the field of education, or entered graduate school.

2022 Teacher Employment

Data from SDDOE indicates that over half (59.5%) of all undergraduate teacher education graduates since FY2012 have been employed in an in-state school district.

Teacher Education Candidates 1,195

Enrollment and degree attainment are both equally important. Enrollment facilitates the pipeline of potential teacher candidates who receive a teaching credential. This year there were a total of 1,195 teacher candidates. This chart represents all candidates and their respective major. The five largest fields of study were elementary education, special education, music, physical education, and history.

Reporting data retrieved from SDDOE, Regents Information System.

Teacher Retention South Dakota Employment
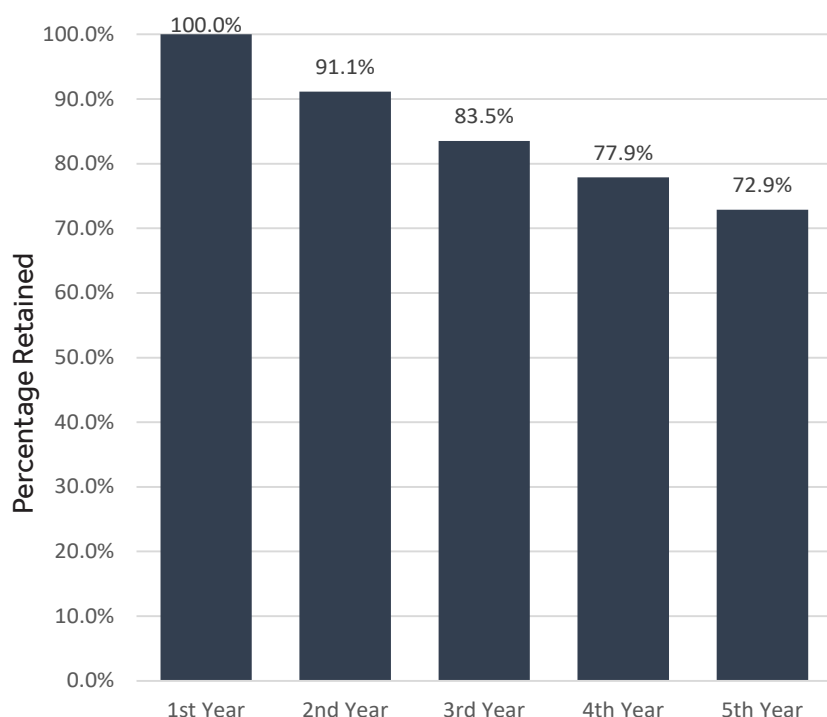

This graph represents cohorts 2012-2017 which have been evaluated to determine retention over a five-year period of time. Across all cohorts examined, roughly 91.1% of teachers returned for a second year of teaching. By the fourth year after initial placement, over three-quarters of graduates remained employed at in-state school districts.

Retention tends to be higher for teachers who graduated from a South Dakota high school. Overall, 75.9 percent of teacher graduates remain in South Dakota for a five-year period.

Teacher Employment Projections and Average Salary

Recruitment for the Regental system programs at BHSU, DSU, NSU, SDSU and USD fall under one of the following degree-major approaches for the Regents:

- B.A. or B.S. Degree with Discipline Major
- B.S.Ed. Degree with Discipline Major
- Alternative Certification

The table below provides the data from the Bureau of Labor Statistics regarding employment projections and the average salary for public K12 teachers. The data on retention and the workforce need further supports critical recruit efforts both in and out of state for students in a teacher educational major.

NURSING EDUCATION

Across the nation, there is a need for well-prepared and highly qualified nursing professionals. South Dakota State University and the University of South Dakota have taken significant steps toward educating and training nurses to meet the industry's requirements. Both universities are known for their exceptional nursing programs that offer students hands-on training and clinical experience. These programs not only equip students with the necessary knowledge, skills, and expertise but also provide them with an opportunity to learn from experienced nursing professionals, enabling them to become competent and confident in their roles. With the help of such programs, these universities are playing an essential role in curbing the nurse shortage in South Dakota.

Nursing Projected Need for South Dakota Employment

- Linear (Projected RN Openings in SD)
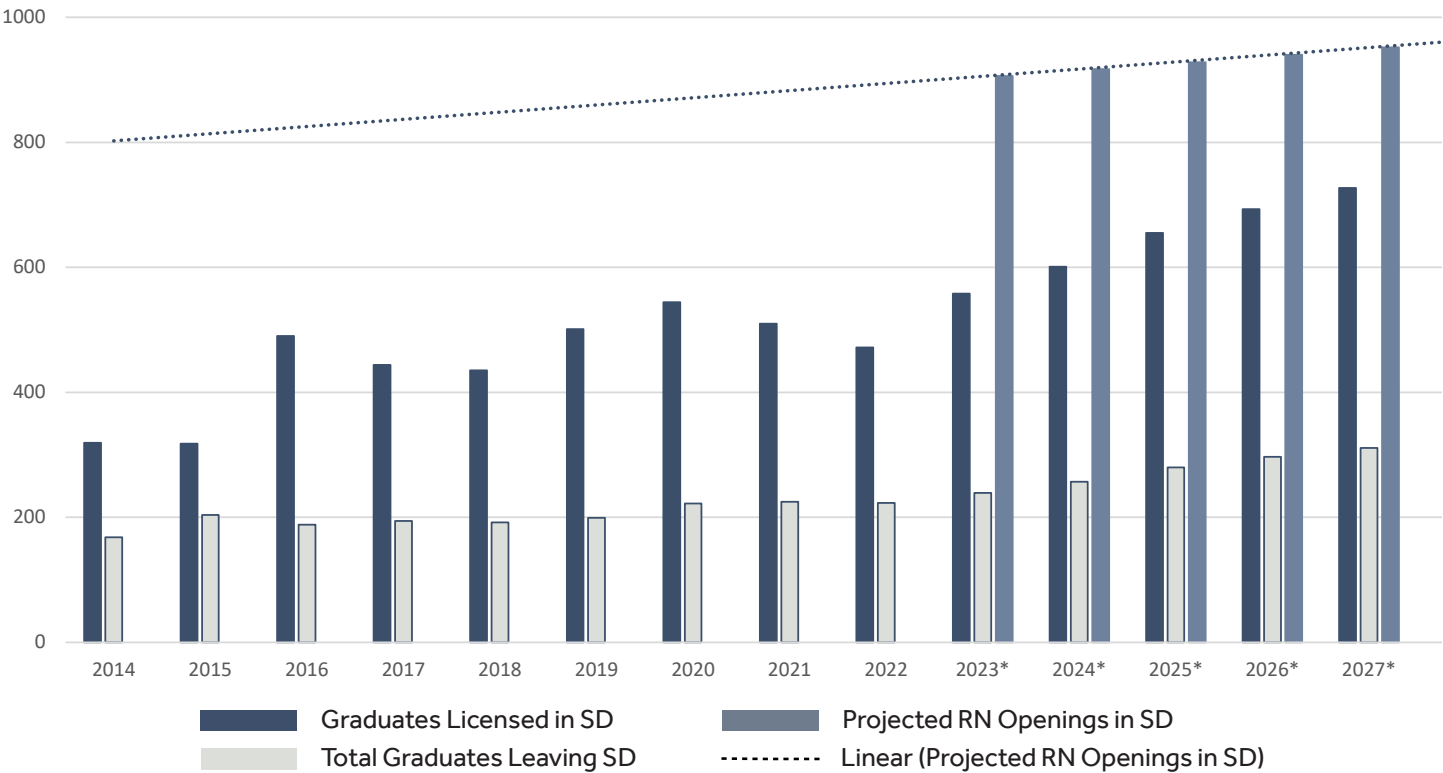

This year the South Dakota Board of Regents authorized the expansion of nursing education in northeast South Dakota to help address the critical shortage of healthcare workers. The program will increase the number of nurses in the state and provide more opportunities for students enrolled at Northern State University.

This summer, The South Dakota Board of Regents also gave the green light for a plan to make it easier for nurses to continue their education and help grow the healthcare workforce in our state with a statewide nursing agreement. Lake Area Technical College, Mitchell Technical College, Southeast Technical College, Western Dakota Technical College, South Dakota State University, and the University of South Dakota created a statewide nursing articulation agreement. This agreement simplifies the process of transferring credits between higher education institutions for nursing students. The goal is to promote workforce development in healthcare, specifically for Registered Nursing and the Bachelor of Science in Nursing, which are critical for South Dakota's economic growth.

GOVERNOR'S RESEARCH CENTER PROGRAM

In FY 2005 the state legislature began making an annual appropriation to fund state supported applied research centers designed to strengthen South Dakota's research competitiveness and generate commercial activity derived from research.

The Board of Regents along with the Research Excellence: A Critical Hallmark (REACH) Committee is charged with oversight and selection of the research centers. The program provides funding to research centers for 5-6 years to advance the following goals:

- Develop focused research centers that are competitive for external research funding;
- Develop and license inventions; and
- Support existing and spin off start-up companies.
