

REDUCED TUITION FOR EDUCATORS

ENHANCED APPLICATION PROCESS & NEW ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

- Be a South Dakota Resident
- Be employed or contracted by a South Dakota Accredited School or Head Start program as a:
 - Teacher
 - Vocational Instructor
 - School Counselor or Psychologist
 - Student Advisors designated as a School Counselors
- Have one of the following college requirements:
 - As a condition of employment
 - To maintain a certificate to teach
 - To maintain certification as a school counselor

To remain eligible for the tuition benefit, students must earn an average academic grade of 3.0 or better in the course.

DURING THE 2024 LEGISLATIVE SESSION, THE EDUCATORS' REDUCED TUITION APPLICATION AND ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA WERE UPDATED. THESE CHANGES REFLECT SOUTH DAKOTA'S COMMITMENT TO PROVIDING THE BEST POSSIBLE SUPPORT TO FURTHERING EDUCATION.

Teachers, vocational instructors, or school counselors who meet the requirements listed below and fulfill all the university admission criteria can attend any undergraduate or graduate course at any institution managed by the Board of Regents at a discounted rate.

Eligible participants receive a reduced tuition rate, but are obligated to pay all required fees. The discounted rate applies to a maximum of six credits per year and is limited to the space available, determined by the instructor.

If reduced tuition is already being received through another program, the student will be assigned the program with the greatest benefit.
